Night Shoot- Oct 12th 72 rounds were shot in 2 hours. Thank you to all that volunteered

PVA shoot went well. Around $400 was brought in and all had a great time.

Keeping the club open after league was questioned. Even if it is slow our members are able to shoot.

CLC trap team-15 attending and will shoot 6 weeks. The birds will be covered and asking them to help with the WG.

New Business-

Rifle Sight-in Days 10-3:00 Oct 19,20, 26, 27 Help is needed

The discussion was to purchase a snow blower for the winter. It was decided to look into a lawn tractor that has the snowblower attachment. Tom did find one and after an email board vote, one was ordered. Bob will hire whoever he chooses to mow and pay with payroll hours.

Tom L will keep the lawn fertilizer, weed control and bugs at the cost of supplies

Garage addition was discussed again. With the 2nd shipment of birds at the end of the year, the garage is full for the winter.

Motion by Penny 2nd by Gary to adjourn 7:35PM
